

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Nader Rahim Sobhani, M.D.

Professional Profile

Critical Care Medicine specialist, anesthesiologist, inventor, and faculty member with extensive experience in intensive care medicine, medical innovation, education, and research.

Education

- Doctor of Medicine (M.D.), Tabriz University of Medical Sciences (2000)
- Specialty in Anesthesiology and Critical Care, Tehran University of Medical Sciences (2009)
- Fellowship in Critical Care Medicine, Baqiyatallah University of Medical Sciences (2021)

Academic Appointment

- Faculty Member, Shahid Beheshti University of Medical Sciences

Honors and Awards

- 21st Khwarizmi International Festival Laureate (2007)
- Member, National Elites Foundation
- 10th Avicenna Medical Sciences Festival Awardee
- Gold Medal, WIPO (2008)
- Gold Medal, Geneva International Exhibition of Inventions (2009)
- Grand Prix Award, Republic of Moldova
- Gold Medal, Middle East Inventors Competition, Kuwait (2008)

Patents

- Five Iranian patents
- One U.S. Patent (US 7,942,848 B2), under international commercialization

Short Academic Biography

Dr. Nader Rahim Sobhani is a faculty member at Shahid Beheshti University of Medical Sciences and a subspecialist in Critical Care Medicine. He earned his M.D. from Tabriz University of Medical Sciences, completed residency training in Anesthesiology and Critical Care at Tehran University of Medical Sciences, and subsequently completed fellowship training in Critical Care Medicine at Baqiyatallah University of Medical Sciences. Dr. Sobhani is internationally recognized for his innovations in medical technology, holding multiple Iranian patents and a United States patent. His scientific achievements have been honored with several prestigious international awards, including Gold Medals from the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and the Geneva International Exhibition of Inventions. His academic interests include critical care medicine, perioperative care, medical innovation, and clinical education.